Outer Planets Through The Signs – The Context

JUPITER IN PISCES (January 18 – June 6): Compassion, peace, spirituality, religious leadership, retreat, reflection, pause, addictions, lack of boundaries, flooding(?)

SATURN IN LIBRA (except April 8 to July 22): Rising divorce, new divorce laws(?), mediation, conflict resolution. Increase in wealth gap (according to R. Merriman)

SATURN IN VIRGO (April 8 to July 22): Anxiety, health crises, focus on details, NHS crises, hard work, work-related stress. Increase in wealth gap (according to R. Merriman)

URANUS IN PISCES (except May 28 to Aug 14): Technology continues to get smaller, quantum computing, invisible surveillance, new species created in laboratories, electricity generated from wave power and offshore wind power, sea-level rise, tsunamis.

URANUS IN ARIES (May 28 to Aug 14): Unrest, freedom-fighters, personal liberty, fight for human rights, individualism, pioneering, charismatic leadership, new beginnings, technology integrated with the body, wearable technology, revolution.

NEPTUNE IN AQUARIUS (throughout 2010): Continuation of theme (since 1998) of glamour of personal technology, continuation of theme of linking up humanity ever more closely - global sharing, global interactivity, user-generated content, social spaces, myspace, facebook, youtube etc., wireless networks, democratisation of fame. Watering down of culture, 'reality' tv.

PLUTO IN CAPRICORN – (2008-2024). Restructuring of world economy, shifts in global economic power, abrupt end of period of unending expansion. Pragmatic concerns – the world economy, climate change, food and energy demands. Moving on from fundamentalism as the main cause of world concern. New model of prosperity, not based on short-term rewards but long term, sustainable growth. Transformation of nation-state model and creation of larger political-economic blocs.

MAIN POINTS OF 2010:

SATURN/PLUTO SQUARE (early January to end of February, peaking Jan 31st. Also August, peaking August 21st)

Extreme cold (re Bernard Eccles' workshop a few years back, which included a technique for forecasting the weather), intransigence, political oppression, deadlock (and concentrated efforts to break it), the possibility of resolving longstanding problems, untangling difficult issues, gloom, negativity, pessimism, fear, hardship, the need to keep faith. Conflict between people and corporations, or people and governments. New economic realities causing hardship in society. Resistance to new economic order.

CHIRON/NEPTUNE CONJUNCTION (Mid January to early May, early July to end of year)

Healing of social divisions, healing (including medical intervention) via the internet, spiritual healing, remote healing, mass healing, hopefulness, working with dreams and intuition.

SATURN/URANUS OPPOSITIONS (Mid April to late May (peaking April 26th), late June to early August (peaking July 27th))

Old order passes away, and new order takes over, but not without conflict. Financial and economic upheavals. Conflict between ♄♁ conservatism (fearful, abides by rules, focuses on details) and ♃♃ reform (visionary, compassionate, inclusive). Contrast between fear and rule-bound attitudes vs trust in the universe, visionary leaps of imagination and taking off into the unknown. The last of the 5 conjunctions, in August, takes place in Libra/Aries, leading perhaps to a more direct confrontation between individual freedom (Uranus in Aries) and laws, norms and conventions (Saturn in Libra).

JUPITER OPPOSITE SATURN (mid to late May (peaking May 23rd), mid to late August (peaking August 17th))

People vs leaders, low point of 20-year economic Jupiter-Saturn cycle, tough choices between expansion and contraction, or spending vs saving, moral and ethical dilemmas, positivity vs negativity.

JUPITER/URANUS CONJUNCTIONS (late May to mid June (peaking June 8th), early September to early October, peaking September 19th)

Innovation, technological breakthroughs, rebellion, revolution (particularly June), individual action vs leaving decisions to politicians and corporations, excitement, desire for social and political change.

CARDINAL T-SQUARE (late July to mid-August) – Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus and Pluto

Social tension, stress, rebellion, revolution, civil unrest, protest, personal breakthroughs, resistance to social control or dictatorship, those in power struggling to maintain control.

PLUTO IN CAPRICORN (Nov 2008 until 2024)

Major corporate shake-ups affecting banks, large institutions, global brands, major corporations. Nation States, Capitalism, Money and Authority all in for a shake-up. Abuses of power as hierarchies resist transformation. Transformation to a sustainable and just economic order.

SUMMARY:

A year full of challenges, change and stress on the world level. So many outer-planet squares, oppositions and conjunctions in one year is unusual, and shows the importance of 2010 as a potential turning-point on the road towards a more sustainable, peaceful and equitable world. The potential for healing in all areas of life is ever-present, and keeping faith with the larger spiritual and human picture will help us all avoid the pitfalls and anxieties that inevitably accompany large-scale change.

The Cardinal T-Square in the summer offers the potential for us all to take action in a personal way to make the world a better place, rather than relying on leaders, politicians and corporations to do it for us, and also to liberate ourselves from fearful, limiting and outworn mindsets.
